

Dear Jewelers,

Below you will find a plethora of websites that you can get materials, ideas, and inspiration from.

We can not guarantee the quality of service from each site, so please do your due diligence and research before committing to any purchase.

Have fun, and enjoy!

Let's get started...

This site is cool as it lists all the bead shops by state. Because I am from California, I prefer Bead Source (3 locations) and Creative Castle.

These are all wholesale priced beading websites.

www.firemountaingems.com

They have a very large inventory of EVERYTHING you would need and I would recommend ordering the catalogue by mail because the online ordering can be a bit overwhelming.

www.dreamfactorybeads.com

Offer great pricing on coral.

www.jewelz.com

Step by step process that can build the pendant with by selecting the stone and then the setting.

www.nilecorp.com

They specialize in displays. I would recommend their earring stands.

www.artbeads.com

They have some really cool artistic Pendants.

www.abeadstore.com

They have a great scroll down choice bar to make purchasing simplified.

If you are into crystals or prisms this would be great for you.

www.mmasilver.com

Great silver items but you must have tax id / wholesale number.

www.bhbeads.com

My favorite thing about their site is the size chart.

www.ibead.com

Free shipping.

www.beadwholesaler.com
